The Ubuntu community

Ubuntu is developed by a community of professional experts around the world. A huge 'thank you!' to everyone who has helped make Ubuntu the world's favourite free-software operating system.

Help us to make Ubuntu even better by getting involved at www.ubuntu.com/community. We look forward to hearing your ideas.

Share Ubuntu

'Ubuntu' is an ancient African word which means 'humanity to others'. All of the software on this CD is legal to copy and share. If you know someone who would enjoy Ubuntu, please pass it on. It's what free and open-source software is all about!
