Ubuntu Global Jam

September 3 & 4, 2011

Ubuntu is a freely distributed, community developed, Linux-based operating system

The Ubuntu Global Jam event is an opportunity to join the Ubuntu community

On the first weekend of September, Ubuntu Local Communities (called LoCo Teams) all around the globe will meet to improve the quality of Ubuntu. This activity, centred around making Ubuntu better, is open to those willing to contribute and learn.
