

ubuntu community week

oneiric ocelot
July 18 - 22, 2011

Elizabeth Krumbach

is a member of the Ubuntu Community Council. She is focused on making it easier for individuals to contribute to Ubuntu. She is one of the leaders of the Ubuntu Women project team and also the Ubuntu California LoCo.

location: san francisco USA

"Working With Other Groups In Your Community"

Learn how your team can supplement other groups in your area to offer presentations, basic training and help without replacing or overwhelming them. Schools, tech groups, LUG's and other community groups can all benefit by learning about open source options. Examples of successful multi-team initiatives will be provided.